Neuroscience Graduate Program Seminars
Spring 2012
Tuesday at 3:30 PM, Room 102-4607

February 27*
REBECCA SILTON, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology
Loyola University Chicago
Time course of frontocingulate activity associated with attentional control in depression and anxiety

March 19*
MARC BREEDLOVE, Ph.D.
Barnett Rosenberg Professor of Neuroscience
Michigan State University
Sites of androgen action in the nervous system

April 3
KELLY LANGERT, B.S.
Lab of Dr. Evan Stubbs
Research Progress Report: Geranylgeranylation facilitates chemokine expression by peripheral nerve vascular endothelial cells

April 17
AMY HERROLD, Ph.D.
Research Associate, Lab of Dr. Theresa Pape, Edward Hines Jr. VA Hospital
Alcohol Craving in Veterans with Mild TBI: Brain Imaging and Behavioral assessment

April 24
MICHAEL COLLINS, Ph.D.
Professor, Dept. of Mol. Pharm. & Therapeutics
Loyola University Chicago, SSOM
Explorations into Neuroinflammatory mechanisms of Neurodegeneration in Alcohol Dependence

May 1
SON TON, B.S. and JONATHAN LAUTZ, B.S.
Rotation Reports

May 2*
(Hines, bldg 228, 3 south Day Room)
R. ANDREW CHAMBERS, M.D.
Associate Professor, Psychiatry
Indiana University
Dual Diagnosis: A Neural Nexus of Mental Illness and Addictions

May 8
IAN VAAGENES, B.S.
Lab of Dr. Gwendolyn Kartje
Research Progress Report: Binge Alcohol and Traumatic Brain Injury

May 25*
(Noon, case rm 460)
ANN McKEE, M.D.
Professor, Neurology and Pathology
Boston University School of Medicine
Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy: What we have learned from the athletes

*Note Schedule Change