Wilton Bunch, MD, PhD

The Wilton Bunch MD, PhD Lecture in Medical Ethics in Orthopaedic Surgery is funded by generous contributions from grateful alumni and faculty in orthopaedic surgery and podiatry.

Dr. Bunch served as president of the Scoliosis Research Society and the Academic Orthopaedic Society and on numerous committees and task forces for the AAOS, AOA and the ABJS. He was responsible for the pediatric section of the orals of the Board. Dr. Bunch was also the Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery and Rehabilitation at Loyola University Medical Center, 1975-1985.

Wilton Bunch Lecturers:
Wilton M Bunch, MD 2012
David Rothman, MD 2013
James D Capozzi, MD 2015
Gerald B. Hickson, MD 2016

Please RSVP by, April 21, 2016 if you plan to attend the lecture and or luncheon.

(708) 216-3280 or ortho@lumc.edu
Fourth Annual
Wilton Bunch, MD, PhD
Lecture in Medical Ethics in Orthopaedic Surgery

Gerald B. Hickson, MD is the Senior Vice President for Quality, Safety and Risk Prevention, Assistant Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs, and Joseph C. Ross Chair for Medical Education and Administration at Vanderbilt University School of Medicine. Dr. Hickson received a bachelor’s degree from the University of Georgia, his medical degree from Tulane University School of Medicine, and completed his pediatric residency and fellowship in General Academic Pediatrics at Vanderbilt Children’s Hospital. Since 1990, Dr. Hickson's research has focused on why families choose to file suit, why certain physicians attract a disproportionate share of claims and how to identify and intervene with high risk physicians. He is immediate past chair of the National Patient Safety Foundation Board of Directors and has received awards for Excellence in Research and Teaching from the Ambulatory Pediatric Association and the Society for Healthcare Consumer Advocacy's Award for National Healthcare Patient Advocacy.

PROGRAM

7:30 am  Continental Breakfast
Maguire Center
Suite 1700
Conference Room 1768

8:00 am  Scientific Program
Stritch School of Medicine
Room 460

Welcome
Alexander Ghanayem, MD
The William M. Scholl Professor and Chairman

8:10 am  Introduction of the Fourth Annual Wilton Bunch Visiting Professor
William Hopkinson, MD
Professor and Vice Chairman
Chief, Orthopaedic Surgery at the Edward Hines, Jr. VA Hospital

8:20 am  Assessment & Regulation of Professional Performance: Who's Responsibility? (The Martians have landed) – Part 1
Gerald B. Hickson, MD
Senior Vice President of Quality, Safety & Risk Prevention
Assistant Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs
Joseph C. Ross Chair of Medical Education and Administration
Vanderbilt University School of Medicine

9:15 am  Break

9:45 am  Assessment & Regulation of Professional Performance: Who’s Responsibility? (The Martians have landed) – Part 2
Gerald B. Hickson, MD

10:30 am  Discussion

11:15 am  Luncheon
Maguire Center
Suite 1700
Conference Room 1768